Wayne Gleeson

The focus of this Information Night will be on the raft of criminal law reforms that have occurred in 2017 – 2018 and the impact they have on our teaching and learning in Legal Studies.

The workshop will consist of

- Updating of all the legislative reforms in 2018 that impact on our syllabus
- Discussion and workshopping how to incorporate these changes into our teaching and learning programs and classroom strategies
- Small group activities on looking at effectiveness criteria for these law reforms

This presentation will be invaluable to all teachers of Legal Studies. New Career Teachers and teachers new to Legal Studies will find this an essential professional development activity.
